Founded in 1980, Xiamen ITG Group Corp., Ltd. is a state-controlled listed company on the Shanghai Stock Exchange (stock code: 600755.SH) and a core member of Xiamen ITG Holding Group Co., Ltd., a Fortune Global 500 enterprise. Over the years, the Group has been recognized as a National Supply Chain Innovation and Application Demonstration Enterprise, a Level 5A Supply Chain Service Enterprise, a model enterprise for corporate governance among state-owned enterprises, one of the most socially responsible listed companies, and one of the best employers in China. In 2025, Xiamen ITG Group Corp., Ltd. recorded operating revenue of RMB 337.117 billion.

Its supply chain management business achieved overseas revenue of RMB 69.601 billion. The company has been included in the Forbes Global 2000 list for nine consecutive years. "ITG" and "Guomao" are China Well-Known Trademarks and China 500 Most Valuable Brands, and the company's brand value exceeded RMB 48.0 billion in 2025. During the current stage of its corporate development, the Group continues to focus on supply chain management as its core business while actively extending into emerging businesses. It positions itself as a trusted global industrial partner and aligns its operations with international trade connectivity, resilient industrial chains, and efficient cross-border resource allocation.

2.3 ITG RESOURCES FZCO Overview

ITG RESOURCES FZCO ("ITG FZCO") was established on 22 September 2023 and is based in Dubai, United Arab Emirates. As the first subsidiary company established by Xiamen ITG Group Corp., Ltd. in a BRICS Plus member country, ITG FZCO serves as an important overseas hub. Based in the UAE, it supports business development, regional resource integration and localized services in the Middle East, while serving markets across the Middle East, North Africa, Europe and worldwide. Relying on Xiamen ITG Group's strengths in commodity supply chains, industrial customer resources, international trade networks and risk management, ITG FZCO mainly provides international trade, local trade and related supply chain services.

The platform combines cross-border resource allocation with localized execution capability, enabling responsive commodity supply and project-oriented service support. For international trade, ITG FZCO focuses on commodity import and export, re-export trade and cross-border supply chain coordination, covering steel, coal, petrochemicals, pulp and paper, agricultural products, textiles and other sectors. It can provide customized services under FOB, CFR, CIF, DAP, DDP and other trade terms, including procurement, sales, logistics, documentation and fulfillment coordination. For local trade, ITG FZCO currently focuses on steel supply and distribution in the UAE market, covering rebar, hot rolled coils, hot rolled sheets, hot rolled plates, CRC, CRS, GI, PPGI, PPGL, beams, angles, channels and other construction and industrial steel products.

The company can also assist with port pick-up, customs clearance, warehousing, transportation, local procurement, distribution and delivery follow-up, and provide local trade and supporting services for pulp and paper, petrochemicals, agricultural products and other categories. For settlement and payment, ITG FZCO may accept T/T, L/C, D/P, CAD, CDC, PDC and other compliant payment methods agreed by both parties, subject to the transaction model, customer credit status and contractual arrangements. For local steel distribution and project-based supply, payment milestones and settlement arrangements may be negotiated based on purchase volume, cooperation period, credit terms and risk control requirements.

ITG FZCO will continue to use the UAE as its regional base and strengthen localized services, resource integration and cross-border fulfillment capabilities, in line with Xiamen ITG Group's vision of becoming a leading global industrial chain organizer.

2.4 Supply Chain, Industry Coverage and Global Network

At Group level, the core supply chain management business has been developed over more than four decades. The business covers eight major vertical chains, namely metallurgy, energy and chemicals, textiles, non-ferrous materials, pulp and paper, agricultural products, rubber, and new energy, supported by general logistics and digital solutions. The Group's operating portfolio spans ferrous metallurgy, coal and energy, pulp and paper, textile raw materials, non-ferrous ores, oil and chemical products, grains and agricultural commodities, as well as selected growth categories such as industrial silicon, green energy, building materials, and other emerging products.

This broad category coverage enhances sourcing flexibility and market responsiveness. The Group has established more than 150 domestic branches and invested enterprises across major Chinese cities, together with more than 50 overseas branches and invested enterprises in over 20 countries. It maintains business relationships in more than 170 countries and regions and serves over 90,000 industrial customers, forming a broad operating network that supports rapid response to market and customer requirements.

2.5 Logistics, Digital Capability and Risk Control

The Group's logistics capability is built on integrated supply chain service experience and supported by vessels, warehouses, yards, trucking resources, freight forwarding, customs brokerage, and coordinated external logistics systems. This allows the Group to provide one-stop and customized logistics solutions covering international shipping, vessel management, shipping brokerage, vessel agency, warehousing, and integrated logistics services. The Group has also developed a proprietary smart supply chain service platform to support digital operations across risk control, electronic signature, supply chain finance, logistics and warehousing visibility, commodities exposure management, and sector-specific operating solutions for agriculture, pulp and paper, metals, and other industrial categories.

This digital infrastructure strengthens process control, service quality, and operational transparency across the supply chain.

2.6 Steel Supply Capability

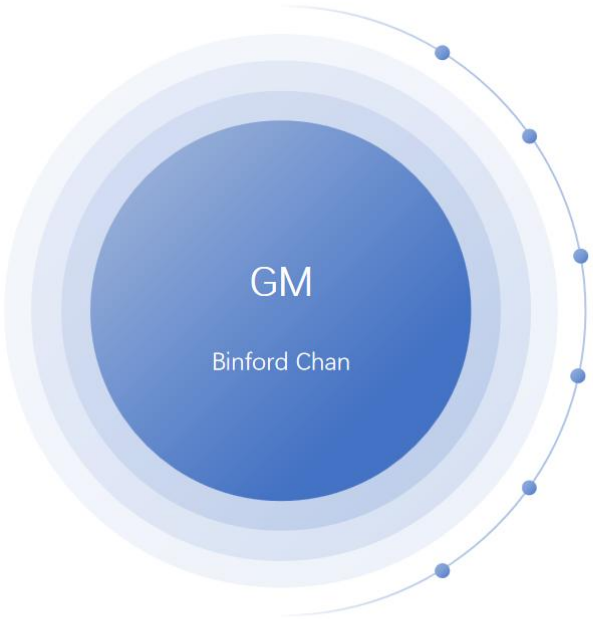

ITG RESOURCES FZCO mainly supplies high-quality steel products. The product most frequently supplied in long-term cooperation with project customers is deformed steel bar. The company combines local UAE market sourcing capability with broader Group-level supply chain support in order to respond to project-based procurement requirements in a practical and timely manner. Main supply sources include recognized mills in the UAE market such as ASAS, JINDAL, MUSCAT, and UNION. Based on accumulated experience in engineering-related supply execution, the company has developed a comparatively mature approach to project planning, supply organization, schedule coordination, and collaborative execution.
