52. PPE Usage During Site Visits

Personal protective equipment - site photographs

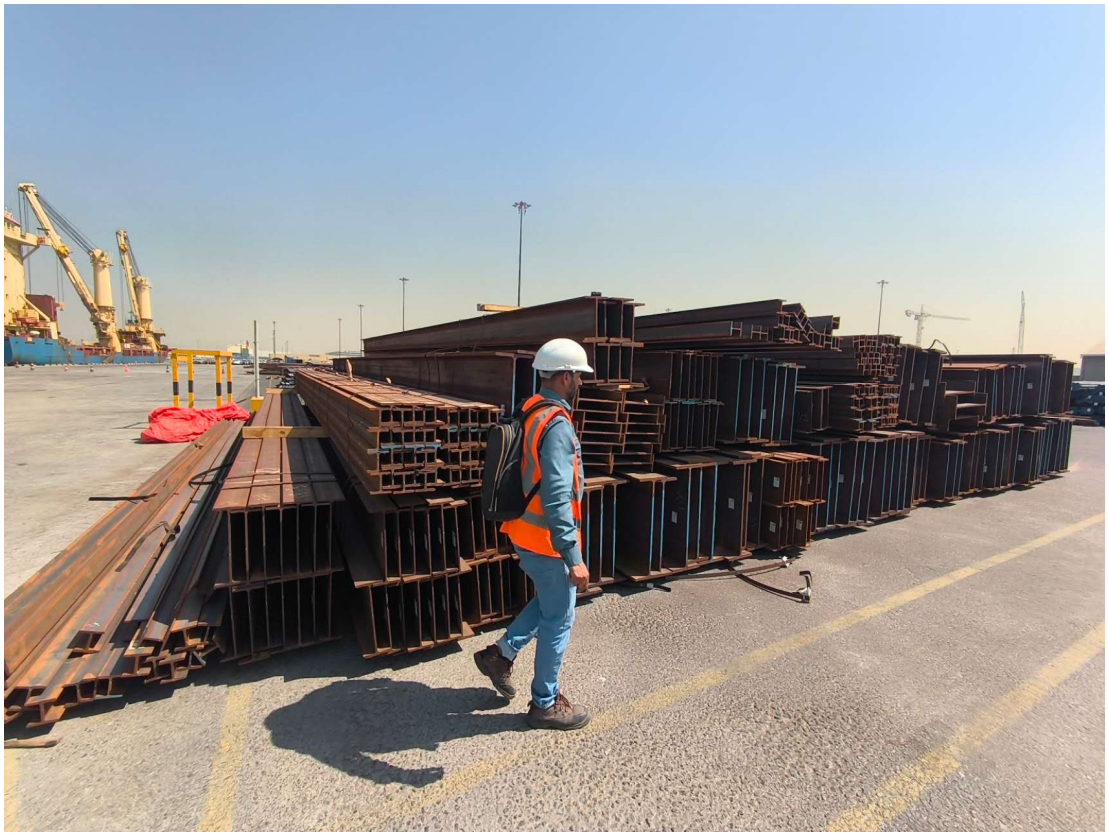

When visiting ports, warehouses or processing facilities, company personnel wear the required personal protective equipment (PPE), including safety helmets and high-visibility vests, in accordance with the site safety requirements. The attached photographs show examples of PPE being worn on site.

Port / cargo inspection area

Site Photographs - PPE in Use

Port / steel cargo area

Processing facility

Construction Site - PPE Photographs

Additional site photographs

The supplied construction-site photographs show personnel wearing safety helmets and high-visibility clothing. They provide additional examples of PPE use on site.

